

Teacher Immersion Fellows Program Expands Again

The Teacher Immersion Fellows Program, a partnership between The College at Brockport and participating Monroe County School districts, has expanded again to include six college partners: College at Brockport, Nazareth, Roberts Wesleyan, St. John Fisher, SUNY Geneseo, and Empire State College and nineteen school district partners: Avon, Batavia, Brockport, East Irondequoit, East Rochester, Fairport, Gates-Chili, Greece, HFL, Hilton, Monroe 2-Orleans BOCES, Lyndonville, Palmyra- Macedon, Penfield, Red Jacket, Rush-Henrietta, Spencerport, West Irondequoit, and Wheatland-Chili. This program offers college students the opportunity to gain paid experience in the education field while enhancing their educational and employment opportunities throughout and following their college career. Students do not need to be in an education program to participate in this program. For additional information about the program, please visit : <http://www.monroe2boces.org/TeacherImmersionFellowsProgram.aspx> or contact Program Coordinator Kara Reidy-Vedder 585-617-2760, or via email at kvedder@monroe2boces.org. If you have 1-5 days per week that you are available in the fall, please consider applying: <https://monroe2boces.recruitfront.com/JobPosting?SKIP=1&JID=3880>

Reminder: Professional Dispositions

All Brockport students who enter a teacher education program agree to the professional dispositions policy. As part of the professional dispositions policy, we ask that candidates complete self-evaluations of their dispositions at specific points throughout their program, which are used for program evaluation. You may receive an email later this semester asking you to complete a brief self-evaluation. If you do, please be sure to complete it in a timely manner. More information on the professional dispositions policy is available online: https://brockport.edu/academics/professional_education/policies.html
